

"GILT EDGE," the only ladies' shoe dressing that positively contains Oil. Blacks, Polishes and Preserves ladies' and children's shoes, shines without rubbing, 25c. "FRENCH GLOSS," 10c. "DANDY" combination for cleaning and polishing all kinds of russet or tan shoes, 25c. "STAR" size, 10c.

"QUICK WHITE" (in liquid form with sponge) quick-ly cleans and whitens dirty canvas shoes. 10c. & 25c. "ALBO" cleans and whitens BUCK, NUBUCK, SUEDE, and CANVAS SHOES. In round white cakes packed in zinc boxes, with sponge, 10c. In handsome, large aluminum boxes, with sponge, 25c. If your dealer does not keep the kind you want, send us the price in stamps for full size package, charges paid.

WHITTEMORE BROS. & CO., 20-26 Albany Street, Cambridge, Mass. The Oldest and Largest Manufacturers of Shoe Polishes in the World.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

Parton Readers are Learning the Way."

It's the little kidney ills-179 375 The lame, weak or aching back-The unnoticed urinary disorders-1 That' may lead to dropsy and

When the kidneys are weak, Help them with Doan's Kidney A remedy especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 50 years,

Bright's disease.

Endorsed by 30,000 people-endorsed at home.

Proof in a Barton citizen's state-

A. E Tripp, Main street, Berton, says: I was annoyed by backache and my kidneys did not do their work as they should. Whenever I have had these troubles, I have liken a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and stationery, casual messages, calling which that mischief monger. Elder have had relief at once. Another of cards or any other form of espionage," Dennett, left at your door, Sedgwick, town on business last week. my family has also taken this remedy said Kent. He led his companions to supposing it to be a likeness of the and has been relieved."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy-get Doan's Kidney Pills-the same that Mr. Tripp had. Foster - Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Commissioners' Notice. Estate of Charles I. Collins.

The undersigned, having been appointed the Honorable Probate Court for the District of Orleans, Commissioners, to receive, examine and adjust the claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Charles I. Collins late of Barton in said District, deceased, and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we will meet for the purpose aforesaid, at the office of the Orleans County Monitor in the town of Barton in said District, on the 22d day of October 1914 and 5th day of March 1915, next from 1 o'clock p. m., until 3 o'clock p. m., on each of said days and that six months from the 5th day of September A. D. 1914, is the time limited by said Court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance. Dated at Barton, this 28th day of Septem-

GEO. A. HUMPHREY FRANZ A. HUNT Commissioners ing.

Estate of Abbie B. Jerome STATE OF VERMONT.
District of Orleans, ss.

The Honorable Probate Court for the Dis trict of Orleans:

At a Probate Court, holden at Newport within and for said District on the 28th day of September, 1914 an instrument purporting B. Jerome, late of Irasburg, in said District. deceased, was presented to the Court afore the 16th day of October, 1914 at the office of Colby Stoddard in Orleans in the town of Barton, at 1:30 p. m. be as-signed for proving said instrument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Orleans County donitor a newspaper circulating in that demanded Blair of Jax. vicinity, in said District previous to the time appointed.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said Given under my hand, at Newport in said district, this 28th day of September, 1914. 39-41 RUFUS W. SPEAR, Judge

Estate of John Barr STATE OF VERMONT

District of Orleans, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the Dis. To all persons interested in the estate of John Barr late of Greensboro in said district deceased. GREETING: At a Probate Court, holden at Newport within and for said district on the 3rd day of October, 1914 an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Barr late of Greensboro in said district debody if, indeed, he did not also kill"- ceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid, for Probate.

And it is ordered by said Court that the 23rd day of October, 1914. at F. W. Baldwin's Jax. office in Barton, in said district at 2 o'clock p. m., be assigned for porving said in-strument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by pub-in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said district, previous to the time appointed.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Newport, in said District this 3rd day of October 1914 District, this 3rd day of October, 1914. 40-42 B. M. SPOONER, Register.

Commissioners' Notice Estate of Eliza A. Cutting

THE UNDERSIGNED having been appointed by the Honorable Probate Court for the District of Orleans Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust he claims and demands of all persons against the estate of Eliza A. Cutting late of Barton in said district, deceased and all claims exhibited in offset thereto, hereby give notice that we was half crazy anyway. And now I will meet for the purpose aforesaid, at the office of F. S. Whitcher, in the Town of Barton in said District, on the 23rd day of October and 10th day of March next, from 1 o'clock p, m. until 4 o'clock p. m., on each of said days and that six months from the 25th day of September, A. D. 1914, is the time limited by said Court for said creditors to present their claims to us for examiation and allowance.

Was half crazy anyway. And now I hear she never has been ideintified. Is that right?"

Sheriff Schlager half rose from his chair. "Ain't you told 'em, Professor Kent?"

Kent shook his head. tion and allowance.

Dated at Barton this 7th day of October,
A. D. 1914.

F. S. WHITCHER, H. T. SEAVER, Commissioners.

The Secret

Lonesome Cove

Samuel Hopkins Adams

Copyright, 1912, by the Bobbs-Merrill

CHAPTER XIX.

In the White Room. NNALAKA, July 15.—To Hotel Eyrie, Martindale Center: Dust 571 and send up seven chairs. Chester Kent" mean?" mused the day clerk of the the more cultivated people of this re- look hospital.

Eyrie as he read the telegram through gion. Among them was a young Ger- John Bend for the second time. "Convention in the room of mystery, maybe?" Nor did the personnel of the visitors who, in the course of the late afternoon, arrived with requests to be shown to 571 serve to efface this impression. First came the sheriff from Annalaka. He was followed by a man of unmistakable African derivation. who gave the name of Jim and declined to identify himself more specifically. While the clerk was endeavoring. him, Lawyer Adam Bain arrived and no guilt between them as the law cessor as to leave the desk lord no fur- one. But it was none the less fatal. ther excuse for obstructive tactics. It culminated in a tragedy of which Shortly afterward Alexander Biair the details are lost. Perhaps it was came in with a woman heavily veiled an elopement that they planned; perand was deferentially conducted aloft. haps a double suicide, with the idea Finally Chester Kent himself appear- that their souls would be united in ed, accompanied by Sedgwick and a death. There are hints of that in the third man unknown to the clerk pom- old letters in the historian's possession pously arrayed in frock coat and silk and in the library at Hedgerow house. hat and characterized by a painfully This much is known: The couple em- unable to resuscitate the man. twitching chin.

"Who have come?" Kent asked the Miltz was never again heard of. Ca-

That functionary ran over the list. "We shall not need in 571 ice water, earliest recorded victim. The sketch

Sedgwick put a hand on his arm. "The woman with Blair?" he asked un- | Elliott sketch for the portrait of Cader his breath.

Kent nodded. "I rather hoped that she wouldn't come," he said. "Blair might better have told her, so far as he knows."

"Then he doesn't know all?" "No. And perhaps she would be content with nothing else. It is her right. down to the present. First, then, I And she is a brave woman is Marjorie | want you to follow with me the course Blair, as Jax here can testify. We of a figure that leaves Hedgerow have seen her under fire." "She is that," confirmed the man By chance, the figure is not seen, exwith the twitching chin.

"This, then, is the final clear-up?" asked Sedgwick. "Final and complete."

Greetings among the little group in "Dressing the part of Astraea," ners at the church on Thursday of this are doing the work. the white hung room, so strangely and harshly thrown together by the dice | "Precisely. Our jeweled figure, in a cast of the hand of Circumstance, dress that is an old one of Mrs. Blair's Jax was named by Kent, with the comment that his story would be forthcom-

"First, the jewels."

Kent turned to Preston Jax, who tleman of the peekaboo mind, Elder handed him a package. Opening it. Dennett. They talk. The stranger Kent displayed the wonderful Grosve- asks-quite by chance, though the elnor rose topazes, with a miscellaneous | der assumed it was otherwise-about To all persons interested in the estate of Abbie B. Jerome late of Irasburg in said lot of rings sparkling amid their coils. the home of Francis Sedgwick. At With a cry, Marjorie caught up the the entrance to Sedgwick's place the

"Are all the remainder of the lost counter, ending in Sedgwick's demandvaluables there. Mrs. Blair?" asked ing an explanation of the rose topazes, Kent.

She glanced carelessly at the rings. And it is ordered by said court that "I think so. Yes. But this is what Alexander Blair. matters to me."

"These are all that Preston Jax found on the body." "It was you who found the body?"

"Yes," said the astrologer uneasily. "Were you alone when you found

"Yes. No. I don't know. There was a man somewheres near. I heard him, Groot, the itinerant merchant. Sedgbut I never saw him." "Was Mr. Francis Sedgwick with you that night?" pursued Mr. Blair in measured tones. "I never saw Mr. Sedgwick until to-

There was a little soft sigh of relief from where Marjorie Blair sat. "That may or may not be true," said Alexander Blair sternly. "It is the word of a man who has robbed a dead

"How came you by my daughter's jewels, then, if you did not take them from the body?"

"I didn't kill or rob any one," said

"Who ever said I didn't take 'em from the body?" retorted the other. "I did take 'em, but it wasn't robbery. And what I want to know is how did they come to be on the body anyhow? What was that Astraea woman doing with your daughter's rings and necklace? Tell me that!"

"Wait a moment," put in Kent. "Explain to Mr. Blair, Jax, what your purpose was in taking the jewels."

"To hide 'em. I thought the less there was on the body to identify it the better chance I'd have of getting

"Nor you, Mr. Blair?"

"Then I don't see why we can't keep ever be known outside of this room," said Kent, and at the words Alexander Blair exhaled a pent up breath of day on a far several miles for the relief. "But it is due to one person village. The victim was Geo. Bradley, here that she should know everything. 20 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Follow me through a page of unwrit- Bradley. The young man became ill ten local history. The beginning of Sunday. There is one other case at wedding in a most pleasant manner. this story goes back some seventy-five years, when there lived not far from there are closed.

CALEDONIA COUNTY.

St. Johnsbury Center and the schools Their three children, seven grand-children and four great grandchildren years, when there lived not far from Hogg's Haven in a house which has capt. John McDonald, a veteran of since been destroyed an older sister both the Crimean and Civil wars, died of Captain Hogg, who married into the here Monday morning, Oct. 5, at the Grosvenor family. She was, from the Ireland and one of the best known it among ourselves," said the sheriff.

von Miltz was his name."

similar to the signature of that note of barked together in a small boat. Von milla Grosvenor's body came ashore in Lonesome Cove. She was the Cove's

"My God!" Jax burst out. "Was it a Mrs. Blair's necklace and rings."

way across country to the coast."

"To join me," said Preston Jax.

"To join you. Chance brings the wayfarer face to face with that gen-pair met. There was a curious enfused to give Sedgwick any explanation, and when he threatened to follow stunned him with a rock and escaped. Some distance down the road wick afterward met him and made in-

"Sedgwick was back in his house by Holding the copy of the confession in his hand in case of confusion of memory, the starmaster told of his rendezvous, of the swift savage attack, of the appalling incident of the heights and of the final tragedy.

rope and the handcuffs meant."

death Astraea from her Hermann."

"The other man was Francis Sedg-

CONTINUED ON PAGE SIX

what became of him?"

Professor Kent?"

quiries, but obtained no satisfaction.

the wayfarer encountered Simon P.

which he knew to be Mrs. Blair's."

jorie Blair quietly.

have your statement."

guessed Lawyer Bain.

milla Grosvenor."

Hawkill heights?"

half whisper.

"There is no reason why it should evidence of the Grosvenor family historian, who, by the way, has withheld all this from his pages, a woman of the G. Third Vermont regiment, and most extraordinary charm and mag- served three years. netism. Not beautiful in the strict sense of the word, she had a gift be roofer, was badly burned when a can of gold and other gifts. Two anniveryond beauty, and she led men in chains. Her husband appears to have been a weakling who counted for nothing in her life after the birth of ployed at the Fairbanks scale factory, burg. man mystic and philosopher who had fled to this country to escape punishment for political offenses. Hermann room at the Pilver block Thursday afternoon. According to acquaintances, Bender had been melancholy "That's why she called me Herfor several days and had evidently mann," broke in Preston in an awed committed suicide. An artery in his wrist was severed and his throat was "Don't jump to wild conclusions," cut. He was found lying on a comsaid Kent smilingly. "Some of their forter in the middle of the room and everything indicated careful planning correspondence is still extant. She signed herself Astraea in handwriting of the act. Frank White, 59, a teamster, emwith signal lack of success, to pump yours, Jax. There seems to have been ployed by the town of St. Johnsbury, was electrocuted while at work on the so emphatically vouched for his prede judges guilt. The bond was a mystic road to Danville Thursday. White had been digging in a trench beside the road and left his work while a blas! was set off. An electric wire carrying 6.600 volts was broken by the blast and one end dropped into the trench White picked the wire up to throw i out of his vay and was instantly killed. His fellow workmen, seeing his plight, at the risk of their lives, cut the wire with an axe where it lay across a timber. A doctor was called, but was unable to resuscitate the man.

Jennie Smith, in company with her friend, Mrs. G. B. Allen, of Lyndon-

WEST BURKE

Mrs. Walsh was in St. Johnsbury

L. K. Harvey of Passumpsic was in

Mrs. W. H. Whitman of Boston is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Cheney. the road to your house, is a Charles Dr. R. H. Burke attended the state medical meeting at Rutland last

Miss Elfreda Copeland is working in Lyndonville recently. ghost I met up with that night on for Mrs. A. W. Brockway and attending school in the village. "As near as you are ever likely to

Mrs. Vira Watson of Sutton has been encounter, probably," answered Kent. clerking in the Ruggles store, during "Now, I'm going to make a long jump the sale of the past week. Fred Green and family, who have been living here for some time, have gone to East Burke to reside. house on the late afternoon of July 5. Frank Allard has moved into Mrs. cept at a distance by Gansett Jim, who Delia Craig's house and L. G. Roundy is repairing his house on the farm. suspected nothing then. Otherwise it The Ladies' Aid society will serve would have been stopped, as it wears one of their excellent chicken pie din-ting at the Summit, and moves there T. Curtis's recently. were brief and formal. Only Preston and with a package in hand, makes its at once. He has rented his house here to Adna Abar.

> Miss Luvena Burke of Bridgeport, Conn., has been spending a few days with her brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Burke.

We understand that Dr. Ames, who, adenoids removed. Drs. Ames and with his family has been spending a Burke came to his home for the work. part of the summer in town, has decided to locate in West Derby. Wm. Gallagher has moved into the tenement just vacated by Oscar Cushman and Mr. Cushman has moved to the Whipple house on the Barton road. We regret to say that Mr. and Mrs. Abar find the hotel work too hard, and

"How did he know that?" demanded have decided to give it up. W. F. Richardson of Westmore is to be the "Because I had worn them when I landlord for the coming winter, we sat to him for my picture," said Mar-"The stranger," continued Kent, "re-

Mrs. F. L. Gordon died at her home in Burke on Monday of last week after a long illness. The funeral took piace Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. Q. Angell of West Burke officiating and the interment was at Newark.

The many friends of Clarence Dale Densmore will be interested to learn of his wedding, which occurred Thursday, Oct. 8, in Venice, California. The bride was Miss Agnes Brisbane of that place, and the officiating clergyman 9 o'clock, and we have a witness here was Rev. Maynard Beckwith, who who was talking with the wearer of will be remembered here. The happy the necklace at that hour. Jax, let us couple have the hearty good wishes of their friends here, for a bright and prosperous future.

Mrs. Geo. Caron, who lived on the Lake road, died very suddenly of heart failure, while about her usual duties last Tuesday evening. She was 37 years of age, and had not lived here manacles, of the wild race across the but a few years. The funeral occurred "I've thought and wondered and figmains were taken to Lisbon, N. H., ured day and night," he said in con-clusion, "and I can't get at what that sympathy is felt for the husband and mother, to whom her sudden death was "The handcuffs must have come from a terrible blow.

that dreadful collection of Captain | The sad news reached here Tuesday Hogg's things in the big hallway at morning of the sudden death, from Hedgerow house," said Marjorie Blair. diphtheria, of Mrs. Frank Gaskell, "Yes," assented Kent, "and the dim clew to their purpose goes back again, I fancy, to the strange mysticism of the original Astraea. The disordered mind, with which we have to deal, seems to have been guarding against to many hearts. Last June she married any such separation as divided in Frank D. Gaskell, a former West Burke boy, and went to live in Worcester, Mass., where she has been very happy.
A memorial service was held here in "It was the other man that killed her," said Preston Jax, "the man I the church on Wednesday afternoon, heard yell when she went over. But and the body, which arrived that night was taken at once to Hillside cemetery "Simon P. Groot spoke of hearing for interment. A profusion of beautithat man's scream, too," confirmed ful flowers covered the grave of the fair young sleeper, and many tears were shed for the life of promise, so suddenly taken, and for the stricken young husband, who could not come with the body on account of illness. Beside her husband, she leaves a father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bain. "Have you got any clew to him, wick," declared Alexander Blair dog-

E. B. King of Sutton, two sisters, Mrs. Flora Philbrook of Littleton, N. The first death from infantile paraly- H., and Mrs. Elsie Murphy of St.

DEAN GOLDEN WEDDING.

Last Friday, Oct. 9, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Dean celebrated their golden were present, and Mr. Dean's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dean and Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Allard and Mrs. Ranney of Wheelock. A fine dinner was served at noon and sandwiches, cake and coffee at six. A general invitation was given to their friends and acquaintances in the evening, and refreshments of punch and wafers were served. The bride and groom of fifty Guy E. Meader, a St. Johnsbury years ago were presented with a purse her children. Seeking distraction, she flung herself into mysticism and became the priestess of a cult of star the flames were extinguished by fellow workmen both of his hands, one leg, and his face were severely burned of Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, and He may lose part of one hand. Dr. W. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Dean of Irasburg, "Now, I wonder what that might worshipers, which included many of B. Fitch orderd his removal to Bright- Mr. and Mrs. Searles and Howard Dean of Derby, Bert and Fanny Dean of Orleans, Dean and Charlie Perry John Bender, 55, unamrried, em- and Lyle and Merton Dean of Iras-

SHEFFIELD

Mrs. Herbert Mitchell is in a very ritical condition. lnez Jones is enjoying a visit from her mother and aunt. Mrs. Quimby visited at St. Johns-bury the first of the week.

Mrs. Fred Day visited in St. Johns-bury the first of the week.

Herman Sheldon of Newport Center was in town on business recently. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gray have moved to Franklin, N. H., where they have purchased a farm. Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Smith and mother, also Mrs. Enoch Smith, visited at Warner Gray's recently.

Dr. Davidson, Baptist state agent, is expected to occupy the pulpit, Oct. 25, going from here to Newport ville, is enjoying a visit in Washing-Andrew Roberts and family in company with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bickof the week. SUTTON NORTH RIDGE ford, enjoyed a vacation trip the first

Don't forget the library league social Thursday.

Mrs. Adeline Coburn is visiting her uncle, O. T. Curtis. Miss Lilla Gilman has been visiting Miss Belle Fairbanks remained at Lyndonville over Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Watkins of Newport visited at E. E. Curtis's last

· Mr. Hall of Rochester was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Curtis. Avery Curtis attended the state

Christian Endeavor convention at Newport last week. J. P. Buzzell is repairing his buildings. Irving Blake and John Chase

Rufus Powers and Mr. Reed of Rich-F. L. Belanger is doing night opera- ford called on friends and visited at O. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Caron of Brownington were visiting his brother, Geo. Caron, at the time of Mrs. Geo. Caron's sudden death. Raymond Gilman underwent an operation Saturday, having tonsils and

Baby's Morning Dip

"GOODNESS KNOWS," says grandmother, "what we'd do without this Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater."

"If I'd only had one when you were a baby, you'd have been saved many a cold and croupy spell.

For warming cold corners and isolated upstairs rooms, and for countless special occasions when extra heat is wanted, you need

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATERS

The Perfection is light, portable, inexpensive to buy and to use, easy to clean and rewick. No kindling, no ashes. Burns kerosene - easy to handle and inexpensive. Smokeless and Odorless.

At all hardware and general stores. Look for the Triangle trademark. STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEW YORK

New York Albany

Buffalo Boston

Banish The Old Ash Pan!

Pawlord Panges

do it. An ash pan is hard to remove and it usually spills the ashes in carrying

The deep Ash Hod of our latest ranges catches all of the ashes, is easy to remove and carry and does not spill the ashes. Coal Hod beside it. Both hods free with each range.

Then there is a wonderful "Single Damper" [patented]; gives perfect control of fire and oven. Better than two dampers. Have you seen it?

> Gas ovens if desired, end [single] or elevated [double].

> > For sale by H. T. SEAVER Barton Agent

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co., Makers, Boston